WASHINGTON CITY.

...Hour Deserts Blaine.

NEW YORK, June 12—The Times' Washington special says that Blaine yesterday received a letter informing him that his friend E. Rockwood Hoar, who has been one of his warmest supporters, had decided to oppose his nomination for President. This seemed to annoy him considerably, and during the morning he frequently alluded to Hoar's disaffection.

...Speaker Kerr's Condition.

WASHINGTON, June 11—Kerr has been confined to his room at Willard's hotel in very feeble state of health all day. At 10 o'clock this morning he was reported a little easier, but his friends still express great anxiety. It was his intention to so journ at Kives country seat, but his condition is such that he cannot be removed.

...Speaker Kerr Worse.

NEW YORK, June 12—A Washington dispatch says Speaker Kerr is worse. He slept very little last night, and although the acute pain of neuralgia in the bowels from which he was suffering is diminished, there are symptoms of great danger and his voice is failing visibly. It is feared that his condition is such that although he may struggle on for some time he is nevertheless likely to die any day, and this report has cast a gloom on all his Democratic colleagues. It is generally said that Kerr will never again be in the House.

...Dedication of a Church for Colored People.

WASHINGTON, June 12—St. Augustine church, built for and owned by colored people, was solemnly dedicated yesterday by Archbishop Bayley.

...Treaty with China Modified.

The House has passed a joint resolution to modify the treaty with China, so as to restrict immigration.

The appropriation committee have reported the army appropriation bill some $40,000,000 less than the estimate, and with sections reducing the force of the army and pay of officers.

...Speaker Kerr in Great Danger.

Speaking of the impending report on Kerr, the same correspondent says the investigation has had marked effect on Kerr's health, whose condition, added to his severe illness, and peculiarly sensitive on such a charge, he is in a very critical state and cannot live long. A favorable report of the committee at this time will be gratifying to his family and friends.

...Ex-Door-keeper Fitzhugh Writes a Letter.

Col. Fitzhugh, the deposed door-keeper of the House, prints in one of the Sunday papers two columns of a letter addressed to the President and the people, which he modestly asks may be published in every paper that printed his ridiculous letter to Maddox. The only point of interest in the letter to the people is his reference to reports that he would retaliate on members of the House, as follows: "After my dismissal, and while smarting under injuries which I thought had been unjustly inflicted upon me, I may have used hasty language, amounting to threats, to some members of the House. This was done in a moment of excitement; but I do now say that no public scandal that may have been borne to me, and official or confidential communication made to me, will ever be repeated, unless from a sense of public duty, or in weakness of exaltation under excitement."

...Resolution for Modification of the Treaty with China.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The joint resolution reported by Piper from the committee on commerce and passed by the House under suspension of the rules to day requested the President to submit to the government of the Chinese Empire an additional article to the Burlingame treaty of July 28, 1868, to the following effect: The United States of America do hereby reserve the right to regulate, restrict or prevent the immigration of Chinese subjects into the United States except for commercial purposes; and reciprocally the Emperor of the Chinese Empire does reserve the right to regulate, restrict or prevent the emigration of citizens of the United States into the Chinese Empire, except for commercial purposes. The joint resolution as originally introduced by Representative Page, of California, was amended by the committee by inserting the words "except for commercial purposes." The vote on its passage was yeas 126, nays 14, and in point of order that a quorum had not voted was raised, but afterwards withdrawn and the resolution was declared passed by the requisite two-thirds majority, the vote lacking only two of having a quorum.

...Safe Burglary Case.

This afternoon in the criminal court, Judge McArthur, W. W. Cook counsel for O. E. Babcock, charged, with others, with conspiracy in connection with the safe burglary case, asked that an early day of July be fixed for the trial, and he protested that Babcock should not be compelled to rest under charges made by such men as Whitely, who will come on the stand as a prejurer. He asked that the case be taken up immediately after the 4th of July. District Attorney Wells said that he expected Whitely and Somerville would be put on the stand, and suggested that no day could be so lengthy as the 26th of September he appointed the day to commence the trial. After some discussion, the 19th day of September was fixed as the day, the court announcing that it would recommence on the 18th.

...Kerr Declared Innocent of Wrong.

WASHINGTON, June 12—Midnight.—The House to-day unanimously adopted the report on Kerr, 201 members, all who were present, voted affirmatively. After the presentation of the report many Republicans spoke favorably of Kerr.

...Grant Returns to the Capitol.

The President returned to Washington this afternoon from Annapolis, where he passed the day yesterday, having left this city Saturday afternoon for that purpose. Soon after his arrival at the executive mansion, the President sent a messenger to Blaine's residence to ascertain the condition of that gent eman.

CONGRESSIONAL.

...Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Most of the morning hour was occupied in discussing the motion to adjourn over until Thursday on account of the large number of Senators absent from the city attending the Cincinnati convention. It was finally rejected, yeas, 16, nays, 26.

Bills of unimportant character were called up and passed, when a division was called for and it was found no quorum was present. After a delay of half an hour a quorum responded and the Senate adjourned over until Thursday next.

In the Senate to-day, Paddock made a minority report against the Senate bill for the relief of settlers on public lands in California; ordered printed.

...House.

Clymer's committee has made a unanimous report of the committee on the charges against Speaker Kerr, fully exonerating him from such charges.

The army appropriation bill reported to-day was made the special order for to-morrow.

Poppleton moved to suspend the rules and adopt resolution directing the judiciary committee to inquire as to the truth or falsity of certain charges and allegations in connection with the legislation of 1869 requiring principal and interest on government bonds to be paid in coin, such charges being generally that large sums of money were paid to corrupt public officials and to influence the public press in favor of that legislation, directing the committee to report whether such corruption does not invalidate that law and whether the law is not in violation of the contract under which the bonds were originally issued, and therefore unconstitutional and void. The vote on the motion resulted, ayes, 192, nays, 21—not a quorum, and the motion failed. The House soon after adjourned.

SOUTH AMERICA.

...Revolution in Bolivia.

NEW YORK, June 11—Bolivian advices via Panama state that Daza was proclaimed President of Bolivia by the army. The revolution was effected on the 4th ult., on which date President Frias and his ministers were imprisoned. Daza has appointed Senor Ohllas as his secretary general. Much alarm reigns in Lapaz, through the streets of which city troops are continually passing and cheering Daza. It is said all kinds of excesses have been committed.

A case of some interest and magnitude is being heard before the land office at Olympia, involving several parties and lands of considerable value. Floating scrip, to the amount of 15,316 acres of land, has been issued to one Thomas P. Valentine, in connection with an old Mexican grant in California, and an application has been made by J. R. Wheat, attorney, to locate some of said scrip on the East half of the Maynard donation claim in Seattle, for the alleged reason that it is now occupied public land of the United States. Hugh McAleer, T. Calvert, E. W. Blake, C. C. Bell, F. A. Minnick, the Northern Pacific railroad, and the city of Seattle are claimants to the same land in whole or part. The pleadings set forth that the claims of the above defendants are not valid, and that the location of the Valentine scrip claim is Richard Alexander who was convicted in Wasco county several years since, was pardoned out yesterday by the governor, after eight years and a half imprisonment. He was sentenced for a term of twelve years, and during his term of service has proved an exemplary prisoner winning friends among officers and prisoners. It is to be hoped he may prove himself worthy of executive clemency of which he is the recipient.

CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

...Delegates Arriving.

CINCINNATI, June 11—About one half the delegates are now here. The rest are expected to morrow and Tuesday. Among the distinguished men who have arrived this morning are Gen. Morgan G. M. Curtis of New York, Gen. Bawley of Connecticut, J. Russell Lowell, Richard H. Dana, Judge Hoar and President Chadburn of Massachusetts, Hon. Chas. B. Farwell and Hon. Jos. Medill of Illinois, Hon. J. W. Logan, Hon. Matt Carpenter, Gov. Shepherd and several others came in from Washington. The last three mentioned openly oppose the nomination of Bristow while of the others named all, except Mr. Farwell, are for Bristow. Mr. Farwell is advocating the nomination of Hon. Wm. Wheeler, and he says there are several others of the Illinois delegation who will go with him. He urges this nomination as a strong one.

The contest between the friends of Blaine and Conkling and of Bristow is fierce, and threatens to become irreconcilable, while between the friends of Bristow, Morton and Hayes there is the greatest cordiality, and a tacit agreement that with the present situation of affairs, the others will be satisfied. The Conkling men are very busy scheming and they count on winding through a combination. They are offering the second place to the friends of Hayes, but the latter refuse to take the bait. There was great excitement in the city upon the receipt of the news of Blaine's illness and speculation is rife as to where his strength will go in case his illness should prove serious.

...New York Journals on the Cincinnati Convention.

[NEW YORK, June 11.—The journals this morning are largely given to opinions and speculations of correspondents at Cincinnati as to the names of the Republican Presidential candidates. These are so full and contradictory on all points that any attempt to summarize, classify or reconcile them would be impossible. Names are given of those bargaining for this and that candidate, by the active political agents of the several candidates.

...Contradictory Speculations.

The Tribune thinks that Blaine is developing new strength; the Times thinks he is weakening. The condition of things is not helped much by the startling dispatches received to day about Blaine having been stricken by apoplexy. Nearly all the journals admit that Conkling has great developed strength. The Sun and Herald have gone so far as to believe the nomination is either his or the Great Unknown's. The Times, which is strong for Hayes or Wheeler, thinks that Conkling is simply sound and fury and signifying nothing.

The Herald's Washington correspondent gives the following remarkable paragraph relative to Blaine's illness: "General Garfield, who was among the earliest to call on the prostrate ex speaker said to the doctors during the consultation as to the nature of his ailments, 'Gentlemen, you can call it what you please, but it is a case of assassination.'"

CINCINNATI, June 12.—Morton's supporters are in much better spirits than yesterday and do not much fear Blaine, whose illness it is assumed, will lessen his strength in the convention, nor Conkling, but are afraid of Hayes. They assert that the efforts of Conkling to secure the Southern vote have failed, and that the Southern delegates are faithful to their pledges. Morton's chief reliance is on the support of Blaine men in the northwest and northeast. Should it prove that Blaine could not be nominated, it is claimed that one third of Wisconsin, a share of Michigan, a fraction of Illinois, and a pretty fair vote from Maine will go to Morton. The number of Blaine men from Illinois is not as large as has been claimed by some. Cal Ingersoll and about five others will probably make up all that can be obtained from that source. The Indiana delegation will, it is asserted, stick to Blaine to the bitter end to Morton. The first important matter before the convention will be the contested seats of the delegates from Alabama. Ex Gov. Morgan, of New York, chairman of the national committee, will call the convention to order and make a very brief speech. Judge Stanley Matthews temporary organization will follow. Then the committees will be appointed. The feeling among Blaine, Conkling and Morton men favors admitting the Alabama delegation the Spencer men, since none of them will vote for Bristow, who is regarded as the common enemy. Blaine's friends have spent two greater part of the day in reasoning the delegates of Hale favorable to Blaine. It can safely be said he has lost any votes yet by reason of his sickness, but should he remain in an unimproved condition, it is said several would only support him on the informal and perhaps not formal ballot. Logan claims he has 320 votes pledged on first ballot, Forster on the second will get enough to put him through.

Senator Logan asserts that the choice of the committee on resolutions between Blaine and Conkling, and that he strongly favors Conkling's position. Conkling men claim that on the second formal ballot, their candidate will have 200 votes; that instead of two votes formerly allowed Bristow in Illinois, he will have six, that after a ballot or two nearly all the Missouri delegates will unite on him. They admit that Blaine's support is made up of the strongest delegates from each State, but claim that these will stand firm and not be coerced into letting their states vote as a unit. Many have no faith in Bristow's strength, and say, after Blaine is disposed of, the Morton and Conkling men will unite against Bristow. Hayes or others will. Sollitor Wilson was the leading spirit in the Bristow meeting to day. One hundred and sixty votes were counted as certain for Bristow. The Ohio men have grown to be very enthusiastic for Hayes. They held two meetings this afternoon, at which reports were made by the prominent members of the delegation who have been in conference with other delegations, going to show that there is a general feeling of confidence in the ultimate nomination of Gov Hayes as compromise candidate.

Missouri and Mississippi are said to have given Gov. Hayes their second choice, and assistance if they only stand firm. Conkling men have been busy conferring all day, and have been taking care of the Southern delegates. It is asserted that the Conkling men have offered to pay all the expenses of California and Nevada delegates attending the convention if they should be able to secure the good of the country required the nomination of Roscoe Conkling. One hundred and twenty Hartford men arrived this evening from Philadelphia, with a band, uniforms, etc.

...Anxiety on account of Blaine.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—The greatest anxiety is felt by all parties to day concerning the condition of Mr Blaine. A number of telegrams have been received stating that he was improving rapidly and in a day or two would be completely restored. Some parties declare it a fact that Mr Blaine's illness was being used to weaken his force, and especially to prevent any sympathy being excited in his favor to the extent of winning doubtful delegates to his support. A sensational dispatch to the effect that Mr Bristow had called upon Mr. Blaine in his prostrate condition, and was expelled by Mr Blaine, caused considerable comment. Mr Frye, leader of the Blaine faction, says he does not believe the statement, as there has been no allusion in his dispatches, and, furthermore, he knew Messrs. Blaine and Bristow were friendly and always had been.

...Conkling's Friends Active.

The Conkling headquarters at the Grand Hotel present a very active scene.

...Prominent Arrivals.

Among prominent arrivals this morning were Stewart Woodford, A. R. Burnett and T. Butler Duncan. The New York delegation are now in Conkling parlors. The South Carolina delegation have arrived and registered at the Grand Hotel. The Hartranft club, of Philadelphia, accompanied by McClure's band, will arrive this evening.

...Blaine said to be getting Better.

The Herald's editorial on the illness of Blaine, which on two reports assumed an alarming character, is now stated as likely to yield promptly to the vigorous treatment which he received at the hands of eminent physicians called in. The remark of Garfield as to its being assassination, is evidently due to excited imagination. We could not afford to miss Blaine for the purposes of this province, and the report of his improved conditions will be read with pleasure by all factions of Republicans. To his friends it will be doubly gratifying, and to his opponents at Cincinnati it will be a matter for rejoicing that they will not be called on to make war on a sick candidate who carries sympathy in proportion to his suffering.

...Citizens' Meeting in Favor of Bristow.

CLEVELAND, June 11.—About 500 citizens met last evening to express their views favoring the nomination of Secretary Bristow.

Hon. Fernando Wood, chairman of the House military committee does not cut a very desirable figure in the following report of a case in the New York supreme court, general term:

The action was brought to recover $1,000 loaned to Wood in 1865. Wood at first put in an answer in the suit, in which he denied ever having received the money or any portion. He afterward put in a supplemental answer averring that he had received the money for paid in assessments but had paid back $500 of it. On the trial at circuit, before Judge Vant Brunt, Wood swore that Fowler had agreed to pay $5,000 a year while occupying the position of corporation attorney. This is alleged to have been a flat contradiction to Wood's testimony on the stand brought in the superior court by Fowler's creditors, who desire to get $15,000 from Wood which Fowler alleges he paid Hall for getting the office of corporation attorney. Wood is said to have testified in the latter action that he never had any agreement with Fowler to receive from the latter any sum for political assessments. In the present case a verdict was directed for the defendant. This is now set aside by the general term, and a new trial ordered because of the exclusion of certain of the plaintiff's testimony. A. H. Reavey appeared for the plaintiff, and James M. Smith for the defendant.

LONDON, June 12.—In the House of Commons this afternoon, Secretary James, in accordance with notice given by him last week, asked Bourke, Under Foreign Secretary, whether Secretary Fish's dispatch of May 23d, relating to Winslow, had been received by Lord Derby, and, if so, whether there was any objections to lay the same on the table of the House. Bourke in reply, said the dispatch had been received but not answered yet. It could not, therefore, be communicated to the House at present.

LONDON, June 12.—A telegram from Calcutta says the rumored inquiry into the murder of Mr. Margary has been wholly futile. Commissioner Grosvenor's report will probably exculpate entirely the king of Burmah and the Chinese general. It is not likely the report will be made public so long as the present European complications exist.

...Trouble in Spain.

MADRID, June 9—Eighty Senators are in favor of the amendment for totally suppressing the privileges hitherto enjoyed by the provinces of Biscay and Navarre. The police have discovered two depots of cartridges at San Sebastian.

...Press Persecutions in Spain.

A letter from Madrid gives details of the recent prosecutions against the press. It says, within the last month the leading liberal journals, Imparcial, Nuevo Regno, and Soles, have been suppressed, the latter for libel. Six liberal papers published in Madrid have been prosecuted, or put on trial for forty days ending June 1st, two being sentenced to suspension. Castellar's organ, El Globo, the only cheap scientific and philanthropic journal in Spain, is now on trial, and it is said its publication will be discontinued. The toleration clause of the constitution, upon which the Senate has built, by a very small majority, if at all. Ruiz Gomez, supported by Olosa and Duke Fernan Nunez, intends to propose a measure for establishing liberty of conscience and of public worship, making native Protestants eligible to professorships and State employments.

PARIS, June 9—The government has decided it will not impose any restrictions upon its workmen going to Philadelphia at the expense of the state, but leave them at entire liberty relative to their researches and studies.

...Opposition to Sending French Workmen to Philadelphia.

PARIS, June 12.—In the Senate, Saturday, Gavarlie, of the Right, opposed the grant for sending a workmen's delegation to Philadelphia. He pointed to the fact that when a similar delegation was sent to the last London exhibition, its members failed to arrive at any practical knowledge, and occupied themselves solely with politics. He argued that the men to be sent to Philadelphia would pursue the same course, as there was nothing else for them to learn in the United States. The Senator's remarks were received with laughter. The Right abstained from voting on the grant in hope that the Senate would have no quorum, but were disappointed.

A Vienna correspondent gives denial to prevalent reports, and declares that there has been no question of a new conference between the three imperial chancellors.

...Prospect of Peace in the Turkish Provinces.

A Berlin dispatch says it is expected that the insurgents will suspend hostilities in consequence of Russia's action. In regard to Servia and Montenegro the Sultan's demand that they shall lay down their arms and loyally await the reforms, will hardly be supported by Russia or accepted by the insurgents. The final pacification depends on the negotiations of the powers. If no agreement is reached the question may revive in an aggravated form after the six weeks' armistice.

A Berlin dispatch says the insurgent leaders have accepted the armistice and appointed Wesselitzki to arrange guarantees with northern powers. Vienna special says that the Turkish governor of Herzegovina offered two thousand florins reward for the capture of the Russian organizer of the insurrection, Fangalia, newspaper of Rome, and makes that the temporary retirement of Botticha koff is probable.

...The Mother and Son of the Late Sultan Put to Death.

A telegram from Constantinople says the eldest son and the mother of the late Sultan have been murdered.

...European Crop Prospects.

LONDON, June 12—The Mark Lane Express says reports of the present condition of crops are hopeful. The weather during the past week has been fine, and in every way favorable to agricultural operations. The appearance of the wheat plant is generally healthy. Under the influence of the improved appearance of the country and the considerably increased foreign supplies our local trade has assumed a quieter tone. Arrivals of Indian wheat are very large. Prices ease off. Aspects of the Eastern question are unfavorable either in the weather also will give spur to speculation. It is probable trade will continue calm and lifeless, though the short supply of English wheat will necessitate the continuance of a steady demand for consumption, increased at times. The recent favorable winds have brought into ports of call a fair number of cargoes, which may be held, especially as political matters remain in such an uncertain state and the possibility of war, which although not acknowledged by many, still looks up in the background.

...The Trial of the Russian Railway King Begun.

In Saint June 12—The trial of Dr. Stroubourg, the famous railway speculator, was begun at Moscow last week. The counsel for some persons who were associated as his accomplices asked for an adjournment of the trial, which was granted in spite of the protests of Stroubourg's lawyers. It is understood that further proceedings have been postponed until December.

...San Francisco Water Rates Fixed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—The commissioners, at their last meeting, adopted water rates and recommended their confirmation by the board of supervisors. Announcement was made a few days ago that the supply committee had recommended the confirmation of the rates and had ready to report an ordinance fixing a penalty of $500 for the refusal upon the part of any corporation to comply with the schedule. In consequence, Chas. Webb Howard, president of the Spring Valley Water Company, has written a letter to the board of supervisors protesting against the confirmation of the rates, and stating that the legal advisers of the company have informed him that the act to establish rates is unconstitutional and void, and that the company will contest it in court if an attempt is made to execute its provisions, and asking also that the order now... with their recommendation, may be referred to an appropriate committee to enquire and report, under the advice of the city and county attorney, whether the act referred to, and the proceedings had under it, are capable of enforcement. The matter will probably be considered at the meeting this evening.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 13 1876.

LOOKING TO CINCINNATI.

To-morrow the National Republican Convention will meet at Cincinnati. Towards that city will the eyes of the nation be turned till the candidates for the first and second offices of the nation have been announced. Perhaps there has been in the history of American politics no time at which the people watched a nominating convention with keener scrutiny, or with more intense interest, than that with which they will watch the Cincinnati Convention. There is a feeling abroad, and it pervades the whole country, that if the Republican party cannot be relied upon to carry through all the reforms which public sentiment demands, they can, at the very least, be relied upon to save the country from the reactionary spirit that would reverse by indirection and circumvention those decisions of the war which involve all the moral victory gained in that memorable conflict. The people at large are little disposed to accept for prophecy, or even probability, the predictions of the extremists in the Republican party, that a restoration of Democratic rule would be followed by another attempt to disrupt the Union. That prediction is regarded by intelligent people of all parties as bald demagoguery. Neither do the people in general sympathize with the efforts of those narrow partisans who seek to perpetuate the animosities of the civil war by continually rehearsing the darkest passages of the history of that unnatural conflict. But there is among the original anti-slavery masses, who constitute a large majority of the people, and who regarded the emancipation and enfranchisement of the colored race as far the greatest victory of the war, a feeling of uneasiness at the prospect of placing the destinies of these yet helpless people in the keeping of a party who have consistently and persistently opposed, from the beginning, all legislation designed to secure civil and political rights to the colored race. The "unfriendly legislation" device, by which Stephen A. Douglas proposed, twenty years ago, to exclude slavery from the Territories while admitting the right of the slaveholder, in the first instance, to carry his human chattels thither, is a device admirably adapted to the purpose of nullifying the constitution in its spirit, while maintaining its letter. The probability of such a course being pursued, in case the Democrats should obtain control of the country, is evidenced by the hostile attitude of that party toward the colored people in the South, as well as by their opposition to all action in Congress for the protection of the rights of the freedmen. This alone is sufficient cause for the decisive so strongly manifested everywhere that the Republicans may select a candidate in whom the urgent demand for administrative reform will be satisfied, and thus render Democratic success impossible. The cry of the people is for reform, for honesty, for purity of government. But there is with this a requirement that these shall be brought about under the auspices of an administration radically Republican in principle. Time is, radically and uncompromisingly opposed to the levy abridgment of the rights and immunities of citizenship for the black man no less than the white. Greatly as reform is needed in the civil service and in the general course of Administration, the people are not ready to secure it at the sacrifice of the victory won by the Republicans for humanity. If the country could be made to believe—which it can not—that a Democratic administration would endeavor in good faith to lift the government out of the mire of ring rule and party corruption, the question would still be asked, whether the rights of the four million colored people were to be curtailed or protection denied to them; and that question would exert a powerful, if not a controlling, influence on the election.

THE SECOND MAN.

The second man on the national ticket to be elected this fall is not discussed very much. It appears to be generally assumed as a natural result of the contest for the Presidential nomination, that some one of the aspirants for the first place, will have the second. That may be the case, but the history of conventions does not furnish the argument precedent in favor of such an assumption. The candidate for Vice President has generally been some person who had not been considered a prominent candidate for President. Perhaps it would be well for the country, if some one of the men who have been discussed as candidates for the Presidency should be chosen for the second place; but that has not been the usual course.

The office of Vice President is a matter of great importance. The Vice President is President of the Senate, and possible chief magistrate. Tyler was President nearly a full term by virtue of his being chosen as Vice President. The same is true of Fillmore. Andrew Johnson was a fatal accident of the same sort. Such a thing is as likely to occur again as it was in those cases. The second man is, therefore a matter of no little moment.

It appears to have been resolved by the managers of one, at least, of the political parties, to draw party lines in the approaching city election, and make partisanship a test of qualification for municipal offices. We are not advised whether the other party propose to take the same course, or not. There is not the slightest reason why party politics should have anything to do with the selection of officers to administer the city government, and unless we greatly mistake the temper of the people, the nominations of party conventions will amount to very little, as a means of influencing voters. Partisanship in our municipal affairs can be productive of no possible good to the people, and does sometimes saddle burdens upon the taxpayers. When the tickets are presented the people will choose their candidates. They may find such as will be acceptable on the party tickets, or they may conclude the best thing is to have a "new deal."

The sudden illness with which Mr. Blaine was seized on last Sunday, while attending church, seemed at first to yield readily to medical treatment and there was every reason to hope he would be fully restored in a short time. But it will be seen by the dispatches this morning that the attack is really a very serious one. The strain of his protracted struggle with the conspirators who had undertaken to destroy him, has proved too great for his nervous system, and though he bore up long enough to put all his assailants to rout and break down the conspiracy, he may fail on account of this illness to reap the fruits of his hard earned victory.

An exchange thinks it is demonstrated by the case of Miss Sweet, the pension agent, who was so unmercifully robbed by Babcock's father-in-law, the U. S. marshal of Chicago, that "women are not likely to make a good figure in political life." It is a good deal more clearly demonstrated that when a ring of unscrupulous and corrupt scoundrels, with strong government backing, set themselves about robbing a woman who has no friend at court they can succeed just as well as if their victim were of the masculine gender.

The Reformed church, formerly known as the Reformed Dutch church, of New York, desiring to own the complete corner of Broadway and Fulton streets in that city, purchased the strip 100 feet along Fulton street and six feet along Broadway, $100 000, this is at the rate of $16,666 for each front foot on Broadway. The Post building stands on that corner and pays to the Reformed church a rental of $30,000 a year. The Reformed church is the richest in New York, except Trinity.

The Democrats having secured a majority in the legislature, the great question now is, Grover, or Nesmith, or "the Great Unknown." We are not inclined to the sin of gambling. If we were, we should lay our wager on the last mentioned individual. The other two are likely to find that cats which have fought in the preliminary skirmish till there is nothing left of either but the tail, don't amount to much as cats when the final conflict comes.

Senator Morton's friends are hopeful of securing his nomination by the Cincinnati convention. Some people seem not to have discovered the tendency of the times to decide elections at the ballot box. It is remarkable that a man of Morton's political sagacity should fail to take into account the part the people are to play this fall, as well as the work of the National convention.

STAGE OF WATER.

Last evening the O. S. N. Co.'s line was down, and we were unable to obtain the latest intelligence. Quite late in the afternoon it was learned that the river had fallen about one inch at Wallula. At 2 o'clock the thermometer at that point indicated 84°. It will probably be three days before the present warm weather will produce a noticeable effect on the stage of water.

Yesterday forenoon, at 9 o'clock, dispatches from up the Columbia indicate the following condition of the water and weather:

Dalles—Weather clear and pleasant; river fell between 4 and 6 inches last night.

Celilo—Clear and hot; thermometer 70°, river fell 5½ inches since yesterday morning.

Walla Walla—Clear; thermometer 70°.

The high water will not interfere with your taking lunch at Barnes.

Will the citizen in post mail everybody feels thankful for it. The public should feel thankful to know that Prefect Chapman is offering the very best goods at the very lowest prices. Examine and be convinced.

Our regular correspondent, under date of June 12th, sends the following:

Circuit court convenes to-day with a well spread docket, on which is noticed eight divorce suits.

Judge Prim's family, who have been residents of Salem for the past year, leave this week for their old home in Jacksonville.

The Grand Lodge of Good Templars will meet here to morrow. Capital Lodge No 11 will hold a special meeting this evening to prepare for the entertainment of their guests.

The ladies of the Episcopal church guild contemplate giving a strawberry fair and festival shortly. It will probably be held in the spacious house and grounds now occupied by Dr. E. V. Chase.

The committee of arrangements of the Oregon Pioneer Association met in the Senate chamber Saturday afternoon. It was resolved that all matters pertaining to licenses of any kind be referred to the secretary alone. Mrs. S. A. Clarke and Mrs. B. H. Bowman were appointed superintendents of the committee on decoration. An immense crowd is expected.

The concert given by the young ladies of the Congregational church Friday evening last was a pleasant success, the house being crowded. Miss Emma Miller, of Oregon City, was present and favored the audience with a few choice selections in her usual efficient manner. Mrs. Helen M. Stratton, an Albany vocalist of some repute, likewise assisted. The net proceeds were about $40.

An accident occurred at the Chemeketa hotel last Saturday evening, which, it is feared, will prove fatal in its results. Little Frankie, a six year old daughter of Thomas Smith, Esq., while playing near the second flight of stairs leading from the ladies' entrance, fell to the floor below, a distance of some fifteen feet. She was probably on the banisters and nothing interfered to break the fall. She was picked up senseless, and although the best of medical skill has been in constant attendance, she is gradually sinking from supposed internal injuries and her chances of recovery are indeed slight.

The College base ball club of Salem, received, on Friday last, a challenge for a friendly game from the well known Spartans of Vancouver,—the game to be played at Oregon City, allowing the Captains to fix their own time for playing. Our boys had a meeting Saturday evening, and decided to accept the challenge, and fixed Saturday next as the date of the game. Messrs. Belt, Peebles, Moores and Rickey were appointed a committee to make arrangements for the transportation of the club and friends, and the probabilities are that a special car will be chartered on the Albany express train and the Vancouver club will charter a boat. A rattling game is anticipated.

REQUEST OF THE GRADUATES OF T. A. AND PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, ETC.

At the last annual meeting of the trustees of Tualatin Academy and Pacific University, June 6th and 8th, 1870, it was resolved to request copies of the addresses of the graduates, and the address of Hon. G. H. Durham, M. A., before the Alumni Association, for publication, and that copies be furnished for the Centennial Exposition, to illustrate the institution, together with two copies of photographs of all the graduates, the president, professors and teachers, past and present, also of the trustees and officers, past and present; and that a third copy be furnished Prof. J. W. Marsh, the librarian of T. A. and P. U., with their autographs and dates of membership in the school, and graduation, and the date of official connection with the institution, with any official or honorary title.

This collection of addresses and photographs, while illustrative of the progress of the school up to this centennial year, will become historical and more attractive to graduates and friends in coming years.

Parties within the call will please notice the invitation and respond as fully and as early as they can conveniently.

G. H. ATKINSON,
Sec. T. A and P. U.

PORTLAND, June 9, 1876.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.

The examinations in the public schools will be held as follows to day:

HIGH SCHOOL.

June 13—9 to 12, Latin, (Reader)

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS.

June 13—History, class B, 1st grade; geography, class B, 2d, 3d, 4th grades.

PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

June 13—Morning, class A, 5th grade, Central; afternoon, class A, 5th grade, Harrison street.

The warm weather will have a tendency to raise the river several inches, but will in no manner affect the prices at Beck and Waldman's which are at all times very low. A call and inspection will satisfy you on that point.

COHNS AND BUNIONS.

Dr. Halpruner treats corns, bunions ingrowing nails, etc., at your residence or hotel. He can be advised through the postoffice, or seen at his office and residence, corner Eighth and Market streets.

W. L. Adams, M. D., A. M., LL. D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated, electric lightning cream baths, and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice, mixed with a little common sense. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. A lady always in the office to assist in treating women.

If you have no spare cash to invest in tickets to the Philadelphia Centennial stay at home and enjoy your own. You can see big sights and buy clothing equally as cheap at Kohn's Emporium, First and Morrison streets. He keeps his stock full and of the best.

A Western genius has invented a machine for making artificial foliage. He might call it "a patent leaf-er." Leaf-er leaver for the Centennial should call at Fishel & Roberts and purchase a suit of their fine clothing.

VANCOUVER ITEMS.

Our regular correspondent at Vancouver, under date of the 12th inst., writes:

Hon. S. W. Brown left this morning for the Cowlitz country.

Dr. I. Dillon, of Portland, is expected to visit our city this week.

Mrs. Judge Stewart is visiting her friends in Yamhill county, Oregon.

H. R. Gridley is getting under way with his new furniture store in this city.

It is feared that the peach crop will not be as good as usual in this county.

Some of our old citizens think that the river will go no from one to two feet higher.

The Columbia river at this place is within about two feet of the highest notch of 1862.

Mother Joseph reports that there are 80 orphans in the House of Providence in this city.

Mr. Stigot of this city, put in the lowest bid for the government beef contract at Fort Vancouver.

From this place to Portland along the river all seems to be desolation with but few exceptions.

Mr. Sperry has been awarded the contract for building the new reservoir connected with the water works of this city.

We understand that the M. E. S. S. of this city, have succeeded in raising funds for more than 100 new books for their library.

The excursionists who visited East Portland Park on last Friday express thanks to Messrs. Zielor & Knowles for the use of the park.

Mr. Shaw left this morning for the pioneer re union at Salem. He came to this coast in 1844. He was seven months crossing the plains, and is now over 90 years of age.

McCarty, proprietor of the Vancouver House has been compelled to vacate owing to high water, but can be found at the next door just as good meals as ever.

The Centennial picnic excursion Friday last was a success. The kind attention of Capt. Gray and Purser Daniels of the steamer Vancouver added greatly to the pleasure of excursionists.

The band of the 21st Infantry U. S. A. are practicing their new selections of music as furnished by Gen. Sully, and we may expect Mr. Hübner, the leader of the band, to meet the fullest expectations of his commander on the evening of the 4th of July.

FOR THE LADIES.

Ball dresses are made without sleeves.

Gray and black brocades are much worn.

Yak lace is coming into favor for out-of door wear.

All skirts are quite plain at the waist to the side seam.

Fashion allows full scope in the garniture of ball dresses.

For an ordinary evening party sleeves are worn to the elbow.

Immense quantities of ribbon are worn and will be all the season.

Fringes are now made with heading, of such width as to be substituted for tablets.

Very long trains are worn for full dress except when they are intended for dancing.

With black tulle dresses only black silk, black velvet or black satin cuirasses can be worn.

Skirts, bodices and sleeves have button holes made on purpose to be laced together with ribbons.

Pockets are not worn on evening dresses. The handkerchief, richly bolaced and embroidered, is carried in the hand.

Many of the dresses made with overskirts have the under skirt entirely plain, all the garniture being appropriated by the upper one.

Single dress skirts, more or less trimmed, are worn by many ladies, sometimes these are quite plain, particularly if the material employed is rich and handsome.

Overdresses whether called polonaise, princess or jaive tunics, are daily increasing in favor, and are likely to as long as toilets composed of two materials are the mode.

In Paris evening cuirasses are made so as to simulate an open bodice, and the open parts back and front are filled in with ruchings and puffings to match the dress. When made unopened at the back the cuirass is laced up the back.

TACOMA ITEMS.

TACOMA, June 10, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN.

Our little city is improving steadily. Business matters have lately received an impetus consequent on the increased confidence our people have in the commencement of operations in the Puyallup coal fields and the work on the railroad from New Tacoma to Puyallup. Most of the buildings are occupied, and others are being constructed and remodeled. We look for a lively season.

The school here has come to a successful termination, under the efficient tutorship of Ladru Royal, formerly of your city. The Tacomaites were treated to a vocal and instrumental concert by the scholars, interspersed with dialogues, tableaux, charades, etc., after which the benches were set aside and the musicians appeared upon the stage, and an hour or so was enjoyed in dancing.

The Oregonian is eagerly sought for on the arrival of the train from Kalama. We are a little inconvenienced now in getting our mail carried from New Tacoma to this place. Government fails to see the necessity of a daily mail, hence we employ a special messenger.

The True Medical Philosophy.

The remarkable cures of Dyspepsia constipation, general debility, intermittent and remittent fevers, nervousness, mental despondency, and a host of other ailments, by that popular botanic invigorant and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, prove that to vitalize, not deplete, the sick, is the true medical philosophy. Under the old system patients underwent a course of treatment that often had the effect of exhausting their few remaining energies. Drastic purgation, and the administration of violent remedies with a weakening reaction, were frequently and most unnecessarily resorted to in cases where invigoration combined with mild regulative treatment was the sole desideratum. That this unwise mode of medication has been to a great extent abandoned is in no small degree due to the success which has attended the peerless remedy above named.

RETURNED.

Dr. Wightman has again returned to this city, where he can be found at his rooms, northeast corner of Stark and Fourth streets. Remember he makes a specialty of Hemorrhoids or Piles and other Diseases of the Rectum, giving immediate relief and curing in a very short time without interfering with the business of the patient. Use no knife, caustic, ligature or any other painful remedies, having treated many cases of twenty and thirty years' standing with entire satisfaction to the parties treated. I have no hesitation in saying satisfaction guaranteed. Persons at a distance may consult by mail. The "process" sent by express C. O. D. (not by mail). Consultation fee, $2. LITTLE FEET.

In castle hall or cottage homes,
Wherever guileless childhood roams,
Oh, there is nothing half so sweet
As busy tread of little feet.

The sighing breeze, the ocean's roar,
The purling rill, the organ's power,
All stir the soul, but none so deep
As is the tread of little feet.

When forth we go at early morn,
To meet the world and leave its scorn,
Across the garden walk so neat
We see the prints of little feet.

At eve, when homeward we repair,
With aching limb and brow of care,
The voices sing out clear and sweet,
Then comes the rush of little feet.

The knives are lost, the dishes stray,
The tools are sported away,
And when we go the lost to seek,
We take the trail of little feet.

But when the angel Death hath come,
And calls those flowerets from our home,
Oppressive silence reigns complete;
We miss the sound of little feet.

When tools are safe, no dishes stray,
No doors go slamming all the day;
But oh! 'twould give us pleasure sweet,
To hear again those noisy feet.

So if night has come, all are asleep;
Yes, all but me: I vigil keep.
Hush, hush, my heart, and cease to beat,
Was that the step of little feet?

Yes, mother, 'twas the softened tread
Of him you miss and mourn as dead,
And often in your sweetest sleep,
You'll dream of hearing little feet.

And when this pilgrimage is o'er,
And you approach that blissful shore,
The first to run your soul to greet,
Will be your darling's little feet.

ABOUT WOMEN.

Sue Cass, of Montreal, sued her lover for breach of promise and Cassed him to the tune of $2,500.

Grace Greenwood does not take kindly to the Indians. She says the finest thing she saw about a squaw's petticoat was a bullet-hole.

A colored brother's opinion: "De women ought'er work; dat's so; for ef it hadn't ben for Eve we wouldn't none of us ha' ben 'bleeged to work 'tall."

A Brooklyn girl was asked by a very thin gentleman if she didn't think she could learn to love him. "I might if you were stuffed," was the laughing reply.

A French girl who committed suicide last month left a note in which she said: "Lack of beauty has brought me to starvation's door, so I anticipate the death that is inevitable."

A little Syracuse girl was seen going along the streets holding her skirt on one side clear up to her waist, and when questioned why she did so said, "Why! dat dess ze way mama does."

The Boston school committee has determined to co-operate with the principals of the high and grammar schools to secure simplicity in dress among the girl students at the coming graduation.

A Chicago man, noted for his infidelity, was married a few months ago, and at last accounts he had so far modified his religious notions as to exp[ress] his firm belief in the existence of a pe[rsonal] devil.

A Hamilton (Ont.) woman has recovered $700 damages from a lover who forsook her after an engagement of 26 years. That is about $27 a year for the joys of courtship, which certainly is not unreasonable.

A lady visiting the Centennial Exhibition was so disgusted at the management thereof that she was moved to remark in indignant tones: "I would like to live until the next one, for the pleasure of declining to go to it."

She was a young lady from New York, and he asked her if she would partake of ice-cream, and she gently answered: "If it's good square confectioner's cream I'm there, but if it's church fair or strawberry festival slush count me out."

NOT GUILTY.—There was a pretty sharp tramp tried before a jury in the recorder's court the other morning. The recorder asked him if he had any objection to make to the jury, which looked like it might have been a detail from Falstaff's recruits with which he said he was ashamed to march through Coventry. The tramp replied to the question by rolling up his eyes and calling on "the power above" that whenever he objected to a jury like that he hoped his right arm might cleave to the roof of his mouth. The jury pronounced him "not guilty" without leaving their seats.—San Antonio Herald.

The old gentleman rushed across the street, raised his hat, and offered to [help] in any possible way. His wife followed him across at a slow pace, and witnessing his devotion to the stranger, she got mad and shook her fist at him. "It's all right—it's all right," he whispered. "Yes, I know it is," she hotly exclaimed; "here's an unknown woman stubs her toe and you plow across the street to set her up with kindness. The other day when I fell down stairs you stood at the bottom and laughed and chuckled and tickled your ribs, and wanted to know if I was practicing for a circus."—Boston Globe.

"George," said a maiden, as she smiled archly in her lover's face, "what is there in a grand achievement that reminds me of you?" George's eye lit with pleasure, and there was a loving tenderness in the glance with which he replied: "No, darling; please tell me." "Big feat," replied the maiden. She now flattens her nose against the window-pane and wonders whether George has committed suicide or gone to China.

PLEASANT "SEND-OFF."—"Ain't $40 rather high for lodging and breakfast?" was what a departing stranger by the Kingsbury stage inquired of the clerk at one of our leading hotels, on being told that was the amount of his bill. "Yes, it is a little high, but we might as well have it as the stage robbers," was the placid answer of the clerk as he receipted the bill.—San Antonio Herald.

A gentleman living not a thousand miles from Augusta, Me., is in a very low condition, and will probably not survive many days. His affectionate wife, who has been on her annual house-cleaning raid, in tearfully speaking of the approaching dissolution of her dear husband, tenderly remarked to a friend: "Oh! how I shall miss him when I come to make soap this spring."

"Ma, does pa kiss the cat?" "Why, no! my son, what in the name of goodness put that in your head?" "Cos, when pa came down stairs this morning he kissed Sarah in the hallway and said that's better than kissing that old cat up stairs, ain't it, Sarah?" And that, people say, is the reason why Smith stayed in the charity hospital for nearly two months.

"Is it becoming to me?" asked she, as she paraded in the costume of a hundred years ago before the man who is not her lord and master, but is her husband. "Yes, my dear," said he meekly. "Don't you wish I could dress this way all the time?" she asked. "No, my dear," he answered, "but I wish you had lived when that was the style."

INVITED TO RESIGN.—He was too solemn a preacher; he didn't suit in Nevada. The chairman of the farewell committee expressed it well; said he: "Now you can git, pard, we ain't agin religion out here, and it riles us to see a feller spilin' it. Git!"—Virginia, Nev., Enterprise.

ENCOURAGING PROGRESS.—"By Schiminy, how dot poy studies de language?" is what a delighted elderly German said when his four-year-old son called him a blear-eyed son of a saw-horse.

The monetary and commercial situation is not materially changed from the quiet condition noted during last week. The banks and other lending institutions have a moderate amount of surplus capital seeking investment on terms that at one time would have been thought extremely low for this latitude, but that time passed away years ago. There may have been years in the history of Oregon and of Portland when business men of good merit and enterprise were safe in paying even the high rates then prevailing for margins on everything and every kind were large, but matters are very much changed now, profits of trade are reduced by extensive competition, and ten per cent. per annum is a higher rate for a business man to pay now than two per cent. per month was ten or fifteen years ago. If an abundant supply of capital were to be had here at six to seven per cent. per annum, the commercial interests of this country might soon exhibit very marked evidences of a revival.

But after all the complaint about dull times we have no doubt that Oregon in comparison with the older States east of the Rocky mountains is comparatively prosperous. An exchange is noticing this general depression in business circles says San Francisco and New York, the one doing business on a specie and the other on a paper basis, 3,000 miles apart as they are, equally are sufferers. From Boston, Baltimore and Chicago equally come complaints of the terrible condition of things financial. Every day, almost, the telegraph brings news of first one New England manufacturing company and then another coming to grief, while a deadly stagnation broods over Wall street, and New York merchants are doing so little business that they have not the energy to fail. Only a participant can fully realize the depth of the slough of despond in which the Manhattan metropolis has fallen. Rents of stores and houses, especially the former, in the most desirable locations of New York are almost fallen to what they were a score of years ago. Scores of stores are said to be standing empty all along Broadway from the Battery to Thirty-fourth street, while handsome mansions on fashionable streets are going begging at half their usual rents. Nor is this all. Business is at so complete a standstill that entire recovery for years in the future is hardly looked for by the best established of firms, and one would be inclined to forever despair of the republic, if New York is to be taken as a sample of the entire country. San Francisco, however, has little to boast of over the Atlantic metropolis.

Home Produce Market.

There are no special new features in the produce trade, receipts being generally light both by boat and rail if we except the staple of wool from Eastern Oregon and Walla Walla, which is now coming forward in very considerable volume. The breadstuffs market is unusually dull, owing to several causes, among which may be mentioned the low prices, the absence of vessels to load, the want of time to give attention to the markets, on the part of the few farmers who yet hold a surplus, and the fact that a great many of the warehouses here are submerged and storage room is worth a good deal. Hence but little more than enough wheat or flour to supply the wants of trade for the time being, is being sent here. The foreign and San Francisco markets exhibit no change, and in ours, quotations for to day are merely nominal. Provisions which have been generally firm are weaker under a lessened demand for shipping purposes, though the lighter receipts at present ruling will have a tendency to make the market steadier again. Mill feed and oats are in fair demand at current rates and the local trade taking up a good portion of the receipts prices are firm at our quotations. Daily products from farms adjacent to the city, supply the local trade in a large measure and at rates unchanged from those prevailing for several days past there is some activity in trade.

The condition of the wool market is but little better than was noticed before. Buyers are not near so plentiful nor so anxious to secure large lots as they were last year, and the offered prices are so low that but few growers are disposed to sell at all, and by far the greater portion of the receipts noticed come on consignment to agents here who will ship to the San Francisco or Eastern markets for sales of wool growers, who have combined for this purpose. Quotations are given as high as 18 cents per pound in the local market, but the bulk of transactions here are made at lower rates, say 16 to 17 cents, though extra choice might be placed at the higher figure.

VALUABLE LANDS FOR SALE.

600,000 Acres in

EASTERN OREGON!

For Farming and Grazing Purposes.

THESE LANDS ARE SITUATED IN WASCO Grant and Baker counties and are offered for sale in such sized tracts, not less than 160 acres, as purchasers may desire. Here is afforded a most favorable opportunity to immigrants and settlers, seeking homes and low priced land to acquire both on the most reasonable terms. These lands are excellent for farming and grazing. On most of the tracts no grubbing, or other preparation of the land for plowing is requisite. A growth of nutritious grass covers the uplands affording the best of pasturage, while in the valleys and bottom lands the grass can be mowed and made into hay. Living springs and streams water the lands in various parts. The uplands, or rolling lands, can be put into crops with the most satisfactory return. Fruit, particularly peaches, plums, grapes, apples, pears and cherries, as well as the smaller fruits, can be grown in great abundance. The climate of Eastern Oregon is very healthful. Flourishing towns are located at convenient points for traffic, the mails are regularly conveyed throughout that section, and a prosperous population is already established, occupied in hunting, stock growing, mining, and various other pursuits. Terms, $1 25 per acre and upwards according to quality and quantity. Interest ten per cent on deferred payments.
